BHARAT — Towards a Developed Nation

A documentary knowledge journey from Kathayan

About the series

BHARAT — Towards a Developed Nation is a research-based documentary series from Kathayan, a digital storytelling and knowledge platform. Each chapter examines one pillar of India's development story with data, field reporting and expert voices. Every chapter is published as a video and as a fully readable article with its sources listed on the chapter page.

The series is produced by Vermaverse OPC Private Limited and published in Hindi. Episodes are made available through the official Kathayan YouTube channel alongside their pages on kathayan.in.
